

Testing the Boundaries and Paving the Way to Democratization

LITMAG

East European Literary Magazines 1945–2004

EXHIBITION EVENT

Monday, 29 January 2024 at 4.00 PM
sale espositive II piano
Biblioteca statale di Trieste
largo papa Giovanni XXIII, 6
34123 Trieste

Local Organizing Committee:
Sergia Adamo, Francesca Richetti,
Iwan Paolini, Vesna Mikolič

Co-organization with the Italian
Ministry of Culture
(Ministero della Cultura)

This exhibition is part of the international project LITMAG, which brings together eight organizations from different European countries. The project focuses on Eastern European literary magazines, which have opposed authoritarian and totalitarian regimes and have significantly affected the processes of democratization and joining the European Union after the Second World War.

Apart from the exhibition, which will take place in Slovenia, Poland, Austria, Hungary, Lithuania and Italy, this topic will be discussed in further detail in online lectures and a scholarly publication that will be issued in March 2024, at the end of the project.

Opening hours:

Monday-Thursday: 8.30 – 18.30
Friday: 8.30 – 13.30
Free entrance
The exhibition is on display
until 15 February 2024.

Project partner and exhibition host:

University of Trieste
Piazzale Europa 1
34127 Trieste
E: adamo@units.it

Project coordinator:

Beletrina Academic Press
Neubergerjeva 30
1000 Ljubljana, Slovenia
E: info@beletrina.si

www.litmag.eu

Project partners:

Beletrina Academic Press, Slovenia
National Museum of Contemporary History, Slovenia
University of Salzburg, Austria
University of Bielsko-Biala, Poland
University of Pécs, Hungary
The Directorates of Vilnius Memorial Museums—Venclovas' House-Museum, Lithuania
University of Trieste, Italy
Science and Research Centre Koper, Slovenia

LITMAG

